A fun part of organizing a dancing event or activity is coming up with a story for one or more of the dances.

Washerwoman's Bransle

- Men and Women scold each other

The Wayward Hound

- Women and Men wander away, but their partner brings them back

Heart's Ease

- Dance with and spurn both your partner and your corner

Cuckolds All a Row

- Men dance with their corner, but end up being hounded by their partner

If you want to make your own set with its own special story, just observe different dances and make notes about the unique characteristics each dance has. Then look for fun ways to combine them.
